

2021 ISOPE's Offshore Mechanics Scholarship Awards Go to Three Outstanding Students

The International Society of Offshore and Polar Engineers (ISOPE) Awards Committee selected three graduate students as recipients of ISOPE's 2021 Outstanding Student Scholarship with ExxonMobil Prize. The scholarships were awarded in recognition of their outstanding academic achievement and potential to become a leader in one of the disciplines related to offshore mechanics or polar engineering.

Congratulations to the recipients:

Mr. Yu Zhou, Dalian University of Technology, Dalian, China

Mr. Callum Stark, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, UK

Mr. Kantaro Suzuki, Osaka University, Osaka, Japan
